

THE APEX MODEL OF MAN'S PROGRESS TOWARDS CONVERSION

by Chauncey C. Riddle

Sons and daughters of God

Pure love!

Joy!

Unlimited potential

Freedom!

Power increases

Knowledge expands

Founded on the rock
Of revelation

Constant communication with the Holy Spirit

THE APEX

The closer one gets to the;
apex, the greater the spiritual demands will be

Spiritual counterfeits possible

The apex demonstrates the process leading to Conversion to the Lord Jesus Christ.

John 8:31-32;
14:6; 16:13

Baptism

Knows the Lord, face to face

Teaches the basics with simplicity

One begins to see glimpses beyond the veil

A new, exciting world opens up.

THE APEX – through which a man must pass to become converted to Jesus Christ

Those moving upward are seeking the Lord, those who fluctuate and never pass through the apex, will likely find themselves in the terrestrial kingdom

Those on the downward spiral will not devote themselves to the Lord completely, but seek to return to a less demanding way of life.

For one who is seeking to reach greater spirituality, spiritual counterfeits are common.

Once a person is baptized, the Holy Spirit is available to guide them upward through the apex.

The 'Natural man' - Baptism leads a man from the broad way where few demands are made upon him, toward the strait and narrow way, though he is still laden with problems and idiosyncracies*

* C. Chauncey Riddle received his PhD in philosophy from Columbia University. He taught at BYU for 40 years, serving as Professor of Philosophy, Chairman of the Department of Graduate Studies in Religious Instruction, Dean of the Graduate School, and Assistant Academic Vice President.